YOUR WINE HOSTS

Scott Scheid grew up in southern California in the town of Costa Mesa. After earning a BA in Economics from Claremont McKenna College in 1982, he moved to New York City and worked for E.F. Hutton and Co. as an options trader. In 1986, after a successful stint on Wall Street, Scott was invited by his father to join the family business, Scheid Vineyards. Scott moved the company headquarters from southern California to Monterey County in 2001 and has overseen the company's growth to 4,000 acres of sustainably certified vineyards, over 500,000 cases of estate-grown wines and a state-of-the-art wind-powered winery.

Scott is an ardent supporter of the California wine industry. He has served as Vice Chairman of the California Association of Winegrape Growers and as President of Monterey County Vintners and Growers Association. He is currently a District Director for the California Wine Institute and serves on the RaboBank National Ag Advisory Board of Directors. Scott is a Master Knight of the International Brotherhood of the Knights of the Vine, Monterey Chapter.

Scott met his wife, Nancy, at a jazz club in 1991 and they have attended every Monterey Jazz Festival since. Scott and Nancy live in Salinas, California with their two daughters, Kira and Chloe.
