YOUR WINE HOSTS

Gary and Ellen Luchtel followed their "hobby gone wild" to the Napa Valley, leaving their city life in San Francisco to pursue their dream of handcrafting small lots of outstanding wines. They began developing their skills, going from making homemade wines to a small commercial winemaking venture, to planting their own estate vineyard and creating their signature brand – Fortunati (meaning "lucky" or "fortunate" in Italian). Today, they feel very lucky to share their passion for the "wine life" with wonderful wine enthusiasts they've met over the years!

Gary and Ellen are intimately involved with all aspects of their award-winning brand. Each bottle is a personal expression of their passion for fine wine, whether estate grown at Fortunati Vineyards in Napa's Oak Knoll District or sourced from carefully selected growers. The diversity of the ultra-premium Fortunati wines is certain to provide a wine for every enthusiast's pleasure!
